

Announcing New Location and Inaugural Exhibition at Ruiz-Healy Art Continuous Change

Please join us for the opening reception from 7pm-9pm on Friday, October 11th. Ruiz-Healy Art will unveil its new location at 201 East Olmos Drive, San Antonio, Texas, 78212. After nine years in our previous location, the gallery plans to increase its engagement with the community from its new setting in the heart of historic Olmos Park on the circle. The new location makes Ruiz-Healy Art more visible, with open business hours Tuesday through Saturday from 11 to 4, offering an opportunity to expose more of our represented artists, exhibiting their work in a more public venue.

Artists featured in Continuous Changes include Pedro Diego Alvarado-Rivera, Cecilia Biagini, Benjamin Dominguez, Andres Ferrandis, Nicolas Leiva, Constance Lowe, Creighton Michael, Cecilia Paredes, and Chuck Ramirez, Nate Cassie.

Ruiz-Healy Art is pleased to welcome Nate Cassie to its roster of artists. His oeuvre includes drawing, painting, sculpture, video, and digital media. One recurrent aspect, both formally and conceptually, is the revolution of elements around a gravitational center; whether by the process of making, focus on a vortex-like object, or artist as a vector of activity or community. Cassie received his MFA from the University of Texas at San Antonio and is a former Artpace Resident. We look forward to presenting a solo exhibition of his work in 2014.

In the same building that night will be the newest Vacancy Project: Piñatas. This single night event founded by Nate Cassie and Ethel Shipton features the works of artists Avi Avalos, Andy Benevides, Jake Zollie Harper, Chance Reyes, JJ Vanlandingham, Shek Vega, and special guest Alison Ward. The piñata breaking will take place at 8pm.

Since 2004, Ruiz-Healy Art has been committed to promoting the best in Modern and Contemporary Latin America and South Texas connected artists.

Continuous Change will be exhibited through November 9, 2013.

-Patricia Ruiz-Healy

Ruiz-Healy Art
201 East Olmos Drive, San Antonio, TX 78212
Tuesday-Saturday 11-4 And By Appointment
info@ruizhealyart.com (210) 804-2219